

CENG595 - Assignment #1 - Introduction to OpenCV

1. A code to read an image from console and display on a separate window with your name as title
2. A code to convert the read image (W x H) to grayscale and form a new image (2W x H) with original image on left and grayscale on right and display on a window.
3. A code to read a video file from console and play on a window
4. A code to capture live view from webcam and display on a window

- Both executables and the codes will be submitted.
- This assignment will not be graded but strongly encouraged to submit.
- Due : March 5th, 2013